DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 4-6 objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend on another multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 4-6 not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-3, and 7-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hawkins. Regarding Claims 1 and 7-13, Hawkins shows that it is known to carry out a method and have an apparatus for producing a sheet comprising an extruder that extrudes a sheet material, including the claimed features and steps, especially including a method wherein the molten sheet is brought into close contact with a movable cooling member by streamer corona discharge from the tape electrode to the molten sheet product (Figures 1-4, 9-10; Summary of Invention). Hawkins does not specifically show the claimed resistance value, the thickness of the electrode, or the protrusion dimensions. However, where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed by the prior art, it is not inventive to discover the optimum or workable ranges by routine experimentation (MPEP 2144.05 (II)(A)). It would have been prima facie obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use any appropriate sizing for the relative features during Hawkins' molding method in order to properly mold the desired article.

Regarding Claims 2-3 and 14-16, Hawkins shows the process as claimed as discussed in the rejection of the relative independent claims above, but he does not specifically show the distance between the tape and the sheet or the interval between the adjacent protrusions. However, where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed by the prior art, it is not inventive to discover the optimum or workable ranges by routine experimentation (MPEP 2144.05 (II)(A)). It would have been prima facie obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use any appropriate sizing for the relative features during Hawkins' molding method in order to properly mold the desired article.
